

Joaquim Majó Fernández, Dean of the Facultat de Turisme at the Universitat de Girona,

CONFIRMS THAT

The teacher, Margarta Netebe from the Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University is taking part in the design of an Erasmus Mundus Master programme in Public Relations which is being led by the Faculty of Tourism. She is partnering Doctor Sílvia Espinosa Mirabet, Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Tourism.

The work is being done virtually due to Covid 19, but the creation of the new studies to be carried out by the University of Girona the Borys Grinchenko University of Kyiv and a third partner is progressing.

The collaboration of Margarta Netebe with the University of Girona came out of the participation of the Ukrainian university in a K107 mobility project in 2019. The aim of said project was to start the process of creating an Erasmus Mundus Master programme. Once travel becomes safe, the teachers hope to continue their work face-to-face both in the Ukraine and Girona.

Joaquim Majó Fernández
Dean of the Facultat de Turisme
In Girona, October 21, 2020